

Nothing Stopped But A Future = Key to Symbols

= in this section, employ the notation located on personal part

= open improvisation

= open improvisation, but change it up somehow from the last section

= rest /silence / out

= improvisation with some limits or structure, told to you verbally

= play "WITH" another player or "WITH" the group (support, accompany, accentuate)

= play, sing, speak written material

= Play "as if notated" music is in front of you

= crescendo, decrescendo (fade up and in ; fade down and out)

= arrow indicates you continue the same process through the next section of piece

= curved arrow indicates to continue what you are doing into next section briefly and then stop in a musical way

= curved arrow indicates that you begin playing before the previous section ends.